Winter Farmers Market Cancellation Protocol for Vendors

1. If the weather forecast for market day is deemed unsafe for traveling, a decision to cancel the market will be made no later than 5:00 pm prior to market day to allow you to best prepare and adjust appropriately.
2. All vendors will be notified by email as soon as possible after the decision is made.
3. A sign of cancellation will be placed at First Congregational Church's north door entrance to notify customers. In addition, cancellation information will be posted on all S.C.I.O. Farmers Market social media pages. As a vendor, we encourage you to share this information. Because of the possible inconvenience, we welcome any contact or alternative pick-up information related to selling your products for us to post on S.C.I.O. Farmers Market social media. Should you decide that you need to share information regarding your products during the event of a cancellation, please email maria@sheboygancountyinterfaith.org
4. If you have further questions or concerns, please contact Maria Camara, the Farmers Market Coordinator on her cell phone 262.993.5646.

Diversity, Equity & Inclusion Statement

Since our inception, Sheboygan County Interfaith Organization has been committed to serving members of the community who are often marginalized, disadvantaged, underserved, and underrepresented. This includes but is not limited to race, color, ethnicity, nationality, religion, socioeconomic status, veteran status, education, marital status, language, age, gender, gender expression, gender identity, sexual orientation, mental or physical ability, body size, genetic information, and learning styles. We strongly believe that diversity of individuals, backgrounds, and experiences strengthens our work. SCIO staff and Board members are deeply committed to equity in all our interactions, including serving clients, hiring practices, and membership. SCIO authentically includes individuals and/or groups into processes, activities, and decision/policy making in a way that shares power and ensures equal access to opportunities and resources.

This commitment and this work is never complete, and we recognize that we will make missteps. In that spirit, we are open to feedback and are committed to a process of listening, learning, acting, and listening more.

Equal Employment Opportunity

It is the policy of SCIO to pledge its full support to equal employment opportunity for all persons, regardless of race, religion, color, national origin, ancestry, age, sex, handicap, arrest and conviction record, marital status, sexual orientation, status as a disabled veteran or veteran with respect to recruitment, hiring, training, promotion, and other terms and conditions of employment, provided the individual is qualified to perform the work available. All employees are expected to comply with this policy. Further, it is the policy of SCIO to comply with the concepts and practices of affirmative action. The Executive Director of SCIO has been appointed to manage the equal employment opportunity and affirmative action policies and programs, including all employment opportunity activities, as required by federal, state, and local agencies. If any employee or applicant for employment believes this policy has been violated, he/she must contact the Executive Director of SCIO.
