Vendor: the producer of goods sold. Includes spouse, siblings, children, parents, and employees of the applicant who assist in the cultivation of the same property or assist in the production of items available for sale.

Vendor Types:

Season Vendor: pay a space fee for the full season. Spaces are assigned for the entire season. Wednesday-only & Saturday-only vendors will share the space on the day they are not present. Market Coordinator reserves the right to fill any vacant spots on any given Market day.

Daily Vendor: pay a daily space fee. Assigned a space for the day, depending on availability, product mix, and Coordinator discretion. Daily vendors are not guaranteed the same space each market.

Community Organization / Non-Profit Vendor: consider a donation to the SCIO Farmers Market. Spaces are assigned for the day, depending on availability and Coordinator discretion.

Product Types:

FARM:

Produce: fresh foods that the farmer plants, grows or cares for, and harvests (e.g. fruits, vegetables, nuts, eggs, meats, milk, etc.) This food is not processed, or is minimally processed.

Plants & Flowers: herbs, garden plants, house plants and/or cut flowers, grown onsite.

Valued-Added: products with one or both of the following two characteristics: (1) The vendor makes the foods from raw ingredients primarily planted, grown or cared for, and harvested by the vendor AND/OR (2) they process the foods through baking, cooking, canning, drying, fermenting, preserving, or spinning techniques (e.g. baked goods, cheeses, jams, dried fruit, pickles, yarn, etc.)

PREPARED FOOD: products that agriculture or non-agriculture businesses make from ingredients primarily purchased. The food is made for immediate consumption (e.g. sandwiches, salads, brewed coffee, etc.)

ARTS & CRAFTS: products hand-made made by the vendor. Direct sale and resale items are not accepted. A limited number of daily vendor spaces and dates are available. Separate application.

Please note: ALL vendor applications require vendors to provide a detailed product listing to help the Market determine the best placement of vendors.

These are ingredients that can cause severe allergic reactions in some people who must be able to recognize when they are present.

EBT, Market Programs & Gift Certificates:

The Sheboygan County Interfaith Organization (SCIO) Farmers Market uses the EBT/SNAP Benefits Program:

What are EBT/SNAP Benefits? Electronic Balance Transfer (EBT) is nutritional assistance benefits available to low-income individuals and families through SNAP, the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program, formerly known as Food Stamps. In Wisconsin, SNAP benefits are accessed via a Quest Card. Quest cards work the same as a credit/debit card.

How The Program Works for Customers:

Customers can stop at the SCIO Information Tent to swipe their SNAP benefits card for any whole dollar amount and receive wooden tokens in return.

How the Program Works for Vendors:

Vendors accept wooden tokens and fresh produce vouchers for accepted food items. Please see list of accepted products below. Customers use the $1 wooden tokens they exchanged at the SCIO Information Tent as cash at your booth. Customers may not receive cash in return for tokens. Please check that the $1 wooden tokens say SCIO Farmers Market.

1. EBT and Fresh Produce Vouchers: All vendors are required to accept EBT wooden tokens and Fresh Produce Vouchers (if applicable), which are reimbursed through the Market Coordinator.
 - a. Wooden tokens (EBT/FoodShare) can be used to buy foods such as:
 - Fruits and vegetables.
 - Seeds and plants to grow food for your family to eat.
 - Meats, fish, and poultry.
 - Dairy products.
 - Breads and cereals.
 - b. Fresh Produce Vouchers ($1 paper vouchers) can ONLY be used for locally grown fresh fruits, vegetables and herbs.

2. Gift Certificates: All SCIO Farmers Market vendors are required to accept SCIO Farmers Market Gift Certificates. There are no restrictions on how customers can utilize the Farmers Market Gift Certificates. Gift certificates are reimbursed through the Market Coordinator

3. Wisconsin Farmers Market Nutrition Program: produce vendors are required to complete training to accept checks from the Wisconsin Farmers Market Nutrition Program: i.e. Senior Farmers Market Nutrition Program and WIC.

training and certification will be provided at the Annual Meeting

WIC Office Contact: Jennifer Hoppe, 920.459.0394

- a. Farmers may not accept FMNP checks until all certification requirements are met.
- b. When all requirements are met, the farmer will receive approval from the state WIC office, including the following items:
 - A letter stating that the farmer is certified.
 - A copy of the signed agreement.
 - An FMNP sign to post at the Market stall.
 - An FMNP stamp to validate checks from participants.
 - A letter to take to the bank explaining the FMNP checks.
 - A list of approved FMNP farmers' markets.
- c. FMNP checks are NOT reimbursed through the Market Coordinator.
- d. Vendors are required to display the appropriate signage regarding the Wisconsin Farmers Market Nutrition Program.

IMPROVED for this year!

Market Fresh Bag Program HOW IT WORKS: Customers sign up in advance to receive a bag of market fresh produce from the market the following week. Market Fresh Bags will be assembled and available to customers every Saturday. Participating vendors will assist market staff in assembling the bags daily and the bags will be provided to customers at the information tent during a designated pick-up time. Customers will have the opportunity to use their EBT tokens and fresh produce vouchers to purchase the Market Fresh Bags. Vendors will be reimbursed on the vendor reimbursement form.

Reimbursements and Sales Reports
